Ordinance No. 4
Series of 2022

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING ANY PERSON FROM COMMITTING ANY ACT OF DISCRIMINATION AGAINST A PERSON BASED ON SEXUAL ORIENTATION AND GENDER IDENTITY AND EXPRESSION, PROVIDING IMPLEMENTATION MECHANISMS AND PENALTIES THEREFORE.

Authored by: Councilor Rhichie Gerard T. Brown
Co- Authored by: Councilors Syvel C. Asilo, Ferdinand A. Avis, Regino S. Balderrama, Orlando R. Benito, Mario C. Concepcion, Jr., Rosalio D. Martires, Corazon M. Raymundo, Reynaldo R. San Buenaventura III, Gregorio P. Rupisan Jr., Editha C. Santiago, Wilfredo F. Sityar, LIGA Pres. Rigor J. Enriquez and SK Fed. President Georgia Lynne P. Clemente

WHEREAS, under Article II, Section 11 of 1987 Philippine Constitution states the State values the dignity of every person and guaranties full respect of human rights;

WHEREAS, under Article III, Sections 1, 2, 4, 8, 12, the State guarantees every person the right to life, security of person and privacy, the right to be free from torture, arbitrary arrest and detention, the right to be free from discrimination and the right to freedom of expression, and the right to organize associations;

WHEREAS, under Article XIII, Section 1 of 1987 Philippine Constitution, that highest priority shall be given to the enactment of measures that protect and enhance the right of all the people to human dignity, reduce social, economic, and political inequalities, and remove cultural inequities;

WHEREAS, the Philippines is a state party to several international agreements such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (CERD), Convention Against Torture (CAT), International Convention on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) and Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), which instruments aim to eliminate all forms of discrimination and abuse;

WHEREAS, on 17 June 2011, the UN Human Rights Council (HRC) adopted Resolution 17/19 (Human Rights Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity), which paved the way for the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) to issue the first UN report on human rights and sexual orientation and gender identity (SOGI). In the report, evidence of the discrimination faced by people because of their sexual orientation or gender identity was presented, including inequities in employment, access to health treatment, care, and support (TCS), and education, as well as criminalization, physical violence and murder (OHCHR, 2011). High Commissioner Navi Pillay challenged UN member states to help write a new chapter in UN history by ending the discrimination faced by lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT+) people;

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING ANY PERSON FROM COMMITTING ANY ACT OF DISCRIMINATION AGAINST A PERSON BASED ON SEXUAL ORIENTATION AND GENDER IDENTITY AND EXPRESSION, PROVIDING IMPLEMENTATION MECHANISMS AND PENALTIES THEREFORE.

Am/Ann
WHEREAS, lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) persons are targets of physical and verbal assaults that affect their economic, cultural, social, health and well-being. There is no coordinated and comprehensive state or even non-state mechanisms that monitor the instances of discrimination, bias, prejudice, and violence that lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) persons face due to homophobia, transphobia and machismo;

Ma. Leticia
WHEREAS, lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) persons in the Philippines continue to experience stigma, prejudice and discrimination. This stigma is manifested in actions such as: bullying, teasing and harassment of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) children and adolescents in families, schools, and communities; media portrayal of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT+) persons as frivolous, untrustworthy and even dangerous or predatory; denying transgender Filipinos entry into commercial establishments; pigeonholing lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) Filipinos into particularly limited roles and occupations; or curtailing their rights to participate in political sphere;

WHEREAS, Section 16 of Republic Act No. 7160 otherwise known as Local Government Code of 1991 provides that, every local government unit shall exercise the powers expressly granted, those necessarily implied therefrom, as well as powers necessary, appropriate, or incidental for its efficient and effective governance, and those which are essential to the promotion of the general welfare;

WHEREAS, Section 18 of Republic Act No. 7160 otherwise known as Local Government Code of 1991 provides that, the Local government units shall have the power and authority to establish an organization that shall be responsible for the efficient and effective implementation of their development plans, program objectives and priorities;, to apply their resources and assets for productive, developmental, or welfare purposes, in the exercise or furtherance of their governmental or proprietary powers and functions and thereby ensure their development into self-reliant communities and active participants in the attainment of national goals.

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE. The LGBTQ+ Comprehensive Anti-Discrimination Ordinance of Pasig 2022.

SECTION 2. DECLARATION OF POLICY AND PRINCIPLES – It shall be the policy of the city government to ensure that all genders benefit equally and participate directly in the processes of the development programs and projects of the different departments/sectors and ensure the full participation and involvement of these gender groups in the development process following the provisions and principles upheld in various international commitments and national statutes/decrees where the Philippines is a signatory.

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING ANY PERSON FROM COMMITTING ANY ACT OF DISCRIMINATION AGAINST A PERSON BASED ON SEXUAL ORIENTATION AND GENDER IDENTITY AND EXPRESSION, PROVIDING IMPLEMENTATION MECHANISMS AND PENALTIES THEREFORE.

It shall also uphold the rights of LGBTs to cultivate and strengthen their belief in and recognition of their worth as human beings as guaranteed in the Philippine Constitution and other relevant laws and pronouncements in the country. Any development endeavour that the city undertakes shall uphold their rights, enhance and harness their full potentials, uplift their status and lead to the improvement of the quality of their lives.

Pasig City is strongly against gender-based discrimination and shall pursue strong measures to prevent and deal with, in the strongest terms, acts of violence and discrimination against women, LGBTQ+ and children.

Towards the aforementioned objectives, the city government shall pursue and implement vigorously gender responsive development policies, design and integrate specific gender support systems, take into consideration LGBTQI+ right to economic survival, political participation, self-determination and personal empowerment, adopt and implement measures to protect and promote their rights, and ensure their widest participation from the sectors: local government, non-governmental organizations and civil society organizations and the private/business sectors in all phases of the development program cycle.

SECTION 3. DEFINITION OF TERMS – As used in this Ordinance the following are defined as:

- (a.) ACCOMODATION – as mentioned herein, includes a house, apartment, condominium, townhouse, flat, motel, boarding house, hotel, and dormitory, which are open to the general public usually for a fee. WHEREAS, under Article II, Section 11 of 1987 Philippine Constitution states the State values the dignity of every person and guaranties full respect of human rights;

WHEREAS, under Article III, Sections 1, 2, 4, 8, 12, the State guarantees every person the right to life, security of person and privacy, the right to be free from torture, arbitrary arrest and detention, the right to be free from discrimination and the right to freedom of expression, and the right to organize associations;

WHEREAS, under Article XIII, Section 1 of 1987 Philippine Constitution, that highest priority shall be given to the enactment of measures that protect and enhance the right of all the people to human dignity, reduce social, economic, and political inequalities, and remove cultural inequities;

WHEREAS, the Philippines is a state party to several international agreements such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (CERD), Convention Against Torture (CAT), International Convention on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) and Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), which instruments aim to eliminate all forms of discrimination and abuse;

WHEREAS, on 17 June 2011, the UN Human Rights Council (HRC) adopted Resolution 17/19 (Human Rights Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity), which paved the way for the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) to issue the first UN report on human rights and sexual orientation and gender identity (SOGI). In the report, evidence of the discrimination faced by people because of their sexual orientation or gender identity was presented, including inequities in employment, access to health treatment, care, and support (TCS), and education, as well as criminalization, physical violence and murder (OHCHR, 2011). High Commissioner Navi Pillay challenged UN member states to help write a new chapter in UN history by ending the discrimination faced by lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT+) people;

WHEREAS, lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) persons are targets of physical and verbal assaults that affect their economic, cultural, social, health and well-being. There is no coordinated and comprehensive state or even non-state mechanisms that monitor the instances of discrimination, bias, prejudice, and violence that lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) persons face due to homophobia, transphobia and machismo;

WHEREAS, lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) persons in the Philippines continue to experience stigma, prejudice and discrimination. This stigma is manifested in actions such as: bullying, teasing and harassment of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) children and adolescents in families, schools, and communities; media portrayal of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT+) persons as frivolous, untrustworthy and even dangerous or predatory; denying transgender Filipinos entry into commercial establishments; pigeonholing lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBTQ+) Filipinos into particularly limited roles and occupations; or curtailing their rights to participate in political sphere;

WHEREAS, Section 16 of Republic Act No. 7160 otherwise known as Local Government Code of 1991 provides that, every local government unit shall exercise the powers expressly granted, those necessarily implied therefrom, as well as powers necessary, appropriate, or incidental for its efficient and effective governance, and those which are essential to the promotion of the general welfare;

WHEREAS, Section 18 of Republic Act No. 7160 otherwise known as Local Government Code of 1991 provides that, the Local government units shall have the power and authority to establish an organization that shall be responsible for the efficient and effective implementation of their development plans, program objectives and priorities;, to apply their resources and assets for productive, developmental, or welfare purposes, in the exercise or furtherance of their governmental or proprietary powers and functions and thereby ensure their development into self-reliant communities and active participants in the attainment of national goals.

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE. The LGBTQ+ Comprehensive Anti-Discrimination Ordinance of Pasig 2021.

SECTION 2. DECLARATION OF POLICY AND PRINCIPLES – It shall be the policy of the city government to ensure that all genders benefit equally and participate directly in the processes of the development programs and projects of the different departments/sectors and ensure the full participation and involvement of these gender groups in the development process following the provisions and principles upheld in various international commitments and national statutes/decrees where the Philippines is a signatory.

It shall also uphold the rights of LGBTs to cultivate and strengthen their belief in and recognition of their worth as human beings as guaranteed in the Philippine Constitution and other relevant laws and pronouncements in the country. Any development endeavour that the city undertakes shall uphold their rights, enhance and harness their full potentials, uplift their status and lead to the improvement of the quality of their lives.
